

Information from the Provisional Administrators of Petroplus Refining Cressier AG

Küsnacht-Zurich, 27 March 2012. During the past week the provisional administrators of Petroplus Refining Cressier SA, Mrs Brigitte Umbach-Spahn (Wenger Plattner) and Mr Vincent Jeanneret (Schellenberg Wittmer), attorneys-at-law, and their staff, have finalised their report of the financial status of the company now under debt restructuring moratorium. This report was delivered to the debt restructuring judge in Boudry yesterday. The provisional administrators have applied for a definitive debt restructuring moratorium for six months for the company. The judge now has to decide whether to grant a definitive debt restructuring moratorium. If such a moratorium is granted, the judge will have to appoint one or more administrators. The statutory two-months period allowed for the provisional debt restructuring moratorium ends on 31 March 2012.

As soon as the decision of the debt restructuring judge becomes available, the provisional administrators will make a more detailed statement about the further course of the debt restructuring moratorium proceedings.
