

Information from the Provisional Administrators of Petroplus Holdings AG and Petroplus Marketing AG

Küsnacht-Zurich, 21 March 2012. During the past week the provisional administrators of Petroplus Holdings AG and Petroplus Marketing AG, Mrs Brigitte Umbach-Spahn and Mr Karl Wüthrich, attorneys-at-law with Wenger Plattner, and their staff, have finalised the two reports of the financial status of the companies now under debt restructuring moratorium. On Tuesday evening these reports were delivered to the debt restructuring judge in Zug. For both companies, the provisional administrators have applied for a definitive debt restructuring moratorium for six months. The judge now has to decide, on an individual-case basis, whether to grant each company a definitive debt restructuring moratorium. If such a moratorium is granted, the judge will have to appoint one or more administrators. The statutory two-months period allowed for the provisional debt restructuring moratorium ends on 27 March 2012 for both companies.

As soon as the decisions of the debt restructuring judge become available, the provisional administrators will make a more detailed statement about their reports.

The reports concerning Petroplus Tankstorage AG and Petroplus Refining Cressier SA will be filed with the competent debt restructuring judges within the next days.
